“ What can I say about Jones Elton Gann? He was a friend to everyone he met. Gene and I have so many good memories with Elton, from riding around back roads in old Blue to spending the day with him on the swing at Weldon. No matter what we were doing, we laughed. And I never knew of anyone else that could make my husband laugh all day. We are going to miss him so much. We grew up with him and grew old with him. I pray that all of his family finds the strength that they need during this tough time. I will be praying for all of you. And to Jones Elton Gann, thank you for your friendship, the laughs and most of all the memories. May you rest in peace our dear friend.
