

Lloyd Ostrander

February 6, 1925 - November 25, 2014

Lloyd Ostrander

-husband, father, grandfather, electrician, handyman, card player and Christian-left this earthly life on November 25, 2014 surrounded by a family that loved him very much.

He was born on February 6, 1925 in Niles , Michigan to Harvey B and Emma Claire (Phillips)Ostrander.

He was a veteran of World War II, serving our country on board the USS DIACHENKO in the US Navy for six years (1942-1948).

He was a master electrician at the Indiana Perdue University Hospital system for many years and retired at the age of 61. After retiring he spent his time buying old houses and fixing them up, which he was very good at doing.

He spent most of his life thinking his dad didn't love him, but came to understand when he was older that the punishments he received as a little boy were done out of love and he was just an ornary little boy. Lots of life's lesson were learned the hard way for him however, he always looked to the positive and shunned the negatives in his life.

A humble and gentle man as evidenced by his prayers which were always so touching and you could tell they were from his heart by the tear that was always in his eye when he said Amen. Never did he ever lead a pray in church that he didn't thank the Lord for sparing our lives another day and another night.

He is survived by his daughters, Sandra Rentz of Grassvalley, California and Debra Wilson (and husband, Homer)of Judsonia, Arkansas; his sons, Melvin Ostrander (and wife Sue)of Spanway, Washington and Alvin Ostrander of Thida, Arkansas; five grandchildren, Tim Rentz, Jason Rentz, Candice (Rentz) Boak, Cheryl (Wilson) McClard, Jason Wilson (and his wife Becky) and Nicole (Ostrander) (and her husband, Michael)Jones. Great-grandchildren Daniel McClard, Alyssa McClard and Molly Wilson.

He was preceded in death by his parents Harvey B and Emma Claire Ostrander, and a son Calvin Ostrander. Six brothers Ira, Charles, Earl, Carl, Aurther, and Floyd (his twin). Three sisters Irene Lord, Edith Weimer and Anna Faye Kennedy. Many nieces and nephews.

Viewing will be at 1:00 pm on Friday, November 28,2014 with services to follow at 2:00pm at Westside Church of Christ in Searcy, Arkansas . No graveside services will be held. Burial will be at the Arkansas State Veterans Cementery in North Little Rock.

The service will be officiated by Steve Reeves, a preacher that Lloyd greatly admired. Funeral arrangements are provided by the Bradford Memorial Funeral Home.

Family requests in lieu of flowers a donation to Searcy Childrens Home in his memory, however, flowers can be sent directly to the Westside Church of Christ on Friday morning.
